

In the terms of REACH the company E. Wehrle GmbH is a successive user. As a successive user, E. Wehrle GmbH has no obligation for registration. In our own interest we pursue the implementation of REACH and the requirements resulting from it intensely.

Our suppliers are urged to inform us about changes or new material characteristics with reference to REACH. In the case the supplier's information requires action at E. Wehrle GmbH (e.g. passing on of information, material changes etc.), this will be initiated immediately.
